NEVIN KELLY GALLERY ANNOUNCES “TEMPORARY CONSTRUCTIONS,” NEW PHOTOGRAPHS BY STIRLING ELMENDORF AND MARK
PARASCANDOLA

Show runs November 12 through November 23, 2008; Opening Reception, Thursday, November 13 from 6 – 9 pm.

In conjunction with FotoWeek DC, Nevin Kelly Gallery, located at 1517 U Street, NW, Washington, DC will host a two-artist exhibition of works by Washington, DC area photographers Stirling Elmendorf and Mark Parascandola. The show will run from November 12 through November 23, 2008. The gallery will host an opening reception on Thursday, November 13 from 6 until 9 o'clock p.m. The public is invited.

The exhibition, titled Temporary Constructions, will showcase new photographs by Stirling Elmendorf and Mark Parascandola highlighting architectural changes over time in Washington, DC and elsewhere by juxtaposing images of contemporary monumental architecture with those of time-worn abandoned structures.

Gallery director Nevin J. Kelly explains “city-wide celebrations such as FotoWeek DC are an important show of support for the visual arts and help solidify Washington's position as an art city. We are pleased to present new works by Mark Parascandola and Stirling Elmendorf, two very talented local photographers who subtly alter their urban landscape photographs to capture not only the visual look of a place, but its mood as well. They have cooperated for FotoWeek to prepare a two-artist exhibition that shares a single common vision.”

Temporary Constructions will be on view in the gallery from November 12 until November 23, 2008. The opening reception is on Thursday, November 13, from 6 until 9 o'clock p.m. The artists will be in attendance.
